THE SPEAKING,

A Big Crowd In Town and Badges Numerous.

Two thousand or twenty-five hundred people were in town Monday, drawn here by county court and the announcement that Col. Breckinridge was to speak. Many came in on the early trains and in vehicles from adjoining counties, but the greater portion of the multitude was from the country precincts of this county. Judging from the badges worn, the supporters of Mr. Owens were in the majority, but the crowd was good natured and we noticed very little drinking. When the 9:50 a. m. train came in from Lexington, bringing Col. Breckinridge, one who did not know what was going on might have thought there was a circus being unloaded or a strange animal on exhibition from the actions of the crowd gathered there, curious to see the man who has been talked and written about so much during the last six months.

At 2 o'clock the court house bell rang, when the crowd, which had been standing so thick upon the streets that pedestrians could scarcely get along, began to surge in that direction. When they reached there the announcement was made that the speaking would take place in the State House yard and there was a great rush in that direction. The yard immediately in front of the State House was soon full, and at 2:10 the speaker took his position in front of the fountain and began his address, which was about two hours long. His voice did not reach the outskirts of the crowd and the latter soon began to melt away until at the close hardly one half of them remained. Some hot words were passed between some of the adherents of Mr. Owens and the Breckinridge men during the speaking, but no trouble followed and the crowd dispersed quietly and returned to their homes.

A Chance for a Prize.

In another column Messrs. Miles & Son offer several premiums for cakes made from their celebrated J. E. M. flour, and every lady who is proud of her skill in the culinary art should enter the contest. All of the prizes offered are worth trying for.

Killed By a Street Car.

Eugene Chambers, son of Mr. W. W. Chambers, of Lexington, was run over and killed by a street car in that city Saturday. The deceased was a grandson of Mr. John Dennis, of this county, and a nephew of Mrs. L. H. Finnell, of this city.

The little fellow was only eleven years old and was returning from a church picnic when he fell between the motor car and trailer, the latter, which was heavily loaded, passing over his body and inflicting internal injuries from which he died at 6:30 that evening. The remains were brought here for interment and the funeral took place Monday afternoon.

At His Old Business.

Mr. John T. Gray, formerly of this city, is now manager of the Villa Ridge Hotel at Pewee Valley, which is being run as a summer resort, being open from June 1st to November 1st. Mr. Gray has thus gone back to his old occupation, as he was for a number of years one of the proprietors of the Capital Hotel, in this city, and understands the business thoroughly. He should make the Villa Ridge a success, as it is well located to catch summer boarders who wish to get away from Louisville during the warm weather.

Graduated With Honor.

Two Frankfort young ladies graduated from Sayre Female Institute at Lexington on Tuesday, viz: Miss Alice Pilkington, daughter of Mr. Ad. Pilkington, the South Side lumber merchant, and Miss Virginia Lyle Cooper, daughter of Rev. W. B. Cooper. Miss Pilkington was one of the two who carried off the first honor of the class. Rev. W. B. Cooper delivered the address to the class.

The Association together with a number of invited guests left at two o'clock for an excursion by boat to High Bridge and the exercises of that part of the programme were carried out on board the boat.

The excursion party returned in time to allow the members of the press to attend the receptions at Judge Holt's and at the Governor's mansion, and almost all of them took advantage of the opportunity.

At the business session Thursday morning Col. I. B. Nall, of the Farmer's Home Journal, was elected President; Capt. John A. Bell, of the Georgetown Times, vice-president, and Mr. Loving Gaines, of the Elkhorn Progress, Secretary and Treasurer. Pat. McDonald, Western Argus; J. W. Nreeland, Farmer's Home, and S. T. After the festivities of Thursday the members of the Association felt little like business yesterday morning, so the session set for 9 o'clock was dispensed with. The Committee on Resolutions prepared the following resolutions, which were incorporated in the proceedings of Wednesday:

WHEREAS, One of the most successful meetings of the Association of the Press of Kentucky has for a time been marked with the choicest offerings of the justly celebrated blue-grass, we therefore express in some measure the appreciation which we feel; therefore,

Resolved, That to those who did most to add luster to this grand city to the railroads of Kentucky, which have been in position to add most materially to the successful conduct of this and all former meetings of this body and which have at all times been ready to stand by the Press of the State for the highest development of Kentucky in every material and mental, this body extends the thanks due them for the courtesies generally received from them, and we assure them of our appreciation of the spirit of this uniform good treatment.

2. To the citizens of Frankfort generally, and to the Committees of Arrangement and of Entertainment, in particular we offer our sincerest thanks for their hours of universal pleasure which we have had with their guests. The best this dear little city can do to offer has been done, and with such a generous hospitality has been bestowed that we have felt the less like strangers here than like wandering brothers safe returned. To His Honor, Mayor Julian, and to his Excellency, Gov. James Brown, personally and as the representative of the great State of Kentucky, we offer the sincerest expressions of the loyal and grateful appreciation which we feel, and to identify which they and their wives may exist between the people and the press.

3. Resolved, That we shall carry to our homes the kindest memories of Frankfort's hospitality, and to the commendable pride which her people feel in the beauty and attractiveness of their city, we add the assurance of our hearty participation.

We jn him in the hope that a short time hence shall be erected here such State buildings as may meet the approval of those among whose lovely hills they are to stand, and shall be a pride to every citizen of the State.

Resolved, To the Capital City Railway Company the thanks of this body are due for a most delightful ride about the city. We appreciate their hospitality as we commend their enterprise.

Resolved, That the retiring President, Secretary and other officers of the Association the thanks of the members are due for the uniform, efficient and valuable service which they have rendered to this body and the unfailing courtesy which they have extended to the individuals comprising it.

Respectfully submitted,

J. S. VAN WINKLE,
D. B. WALLACE,
B. D. RINGO,

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT

FRANKFORT, JUNE 9, 1894.

Base Ball.

FRANKFORT, 12; GEORGETOWN, 1.

The game between the Georgetown College team and the locals at Thorn Hill Park on Saturday of last week was something of a farce, the only noteworthy feature being the heavy batting of the Frankforts, in which Lew. Brown led with a double and two triples. Hall, a new man from Cincinnati, was given a trial at third and behind the bat and showed up very well barring two wild throws. He is very handy with the stick. The attendance was the largest of the season.

NOTES.

The "O. I. C's." of Louisville, will play here next Tuesday.

No game has yet been arranged for to-day week, but the announcement will be made in due time.

The Shelbyvilles will be at the park again this afternoon. The game will be called at 3:30 and a fine contest is promised. Lew. Brown will be behind the bat and Maloney will do the twirling.

The game between the Georgetown Public School and the Frankfort Public School, which took place before the regular game at Thorn Hill last Saturday, was won by the latter, the score being 8 to 7.

There was a large crowd at the park Tuesday, in spite of the threatening weather, to witness the game between Shelbyville and the locals, but just before time to call the game it began to rain steadily and after waiting over half an hour, it was decided to call the contest off. It was a great disap-ointment to all parties, as both clubs were confident of victory, and the audience was anticipating fine sport. Rain tickets were issued by the management, good at any game during the season.

Deaths.

ARMSTRONG—Mr. Manual Armstrong, an old resident of this country, died on Friday of last week at his home near Bridgeport, aged 70 years. The deceased was an uncle of Sheriff R. D. Armstrong. The funeral took place Saturday afternoon, and the remains were interred in the family burying ground.

DEHONEY—Mrs. Laura Wingate Dehoney, wife of W. S. Dehoney, Esq., died Thursday night about 12 o'clock, after an illness of one week's duration, aged 57 years. The deceased had been in delicate health for a long time, but was not confined to bed until Thursday of last week, when she was taken suddenly ill. From the first there was no hope except that entertained by the loving hearts hovering about her bedside—praying that she might be spared to them for years to come. She was an affectionate wife, kind and indulgent mother, and had been for many years a member of the Baptist Church, and to her death had no terrors. As her life had been quiet and peaceful, so was her death—a gentle as the sleep of an infant. She leaves three children: Mr. Richard Dehoney, of St. Louis; Dr. Howard Dehoney, of Philadelphia, and Miss Janie Dehoney, of this city—with a devoted husband to mourn her loss, to whom the hearts of a large circle of relatives and friends go out in tenderest sympathy.

The funeral will take place this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, from the residence of her husband, 444 Main street. The services will be conducted by Rev. W. C. Taylor, of the Baptist Church.

GILTNER—A telegram was received by relatives in this city yesterday morning announcing the death of Mrs. Lizzie Giltner, wife of Rev. W. S. Giltner, for many years president of Eminence College. The sad event occurred at the home of her husband in Eminence Thursday night and the funeral will take place this morning at 11 o'clock.

MAYHALL—Judge John Mayhall, brother of the late T. J. Mayhall, of this city, died at his home at New Maysville, Indiana, on May 28th, aged 84 years. The deceased was born and raised in this county, and was the last but one of a family of twelve children—Mrs. Jas. R. Watson, of Louisville, being the only survivor. He was a kind hearted and worthy man.

WAGGONER—Mrs. Mary A. Waggoner, formerly of this city, died at the residence of her son, on June 3d, of congestive chills, after an illness of two days, aged 72 years and 8 months. She was a native of Ohio but had resided for 17 years in Kentucky. She was a consistent member of the Baptist Church since her 17th year, and was a widow for thirty years. She leaves four children: Mrs. Harriet Trickey, of Jennings, Michigan; E. B. Waggoner, of Indianapolis, Indiana; Mrs. R. V. Culter, of Louisville, Kentucky; and A. H. Waggoner, of this city. Her funeral took place from the Baptist Church, June 5th, at 4 o'clock, and she was laid to rest by the loving hands of son and daughter and many friends, in Frankfort's beautiful cemetery.

Some time ago I was troubled with an attack of rheumatism. I used Chamberlain's Pain Balm and was greatly relieved. I have since advised many of my friends and acquaintances to try the remedy and all speak highly of it. SIMON GOLDBAUM, San Luis Rey, Cal. For sale by PHIL CARPENTER, South Side Druggist.

FRANKFORT.

Franklin county was formed in 1794, and was the 18th county created in Kentucky. Frankfort, the county seat, has been the Capital of Kentucky since December 6th, 1792. By acts of the Legislature in 1794, or 1795, about $3,500 were appropriated and expended by the State in constructing the first Capitol building, the remainder being paid by Samuel Holmes and others under contract. When the seat of government was fixed here, the Legislature and the Legislature occupied the old Love House, that stood on the corner of Wapping and Wilkinson streets. This house was also known as the headquarters of Aaron Burr, where the conspiracy was planned to kidnap his master. The third State House was in fact the first permanent house erected for the purpose, and was occupied Nov. 3, 1794. This was destroyed by fire in 1813. The next or fourth Capitol was rented and occupied while the fifth, or present permanent Capitol building was constructed, which was completed in 1814-15, at a cost of $40,000, of which $20,000 were subscribed by individuals, and the remainder by the State. This was destroyed by fire in November, 1858. The sixth was temporary, the Senate occupying a seminary building on the square, while the House occupied a church on the west side. This church was burned on December 12, 1825, while the House was in session. The seventh State House, the third built for the purpose was first occupied by the legislature in 1829, and is the same in which the sessions are now held. To construct this building the State appropriated $85,000. The grounds upon which the building stand were donated by citizens of Frankfort. The east wing of the present structure cost about $150,000 and was commenced in 1873. The State of Kentucky during its existence for a century had expended sum of $267,500 on buildings to house its records and public offices. The city of Frankfort has always been the political center of the State. Public officers, after their terms expired, became citizens, identifying themselves with the Capital City.

MANUFACTURES.

Chief among the products of Frankfort may be stated whisky, flour, twine, chairs, barrels, barrels and lumber, the "Milan" here is located the "Hermitage," the "Carlsisle," and "O. P. C." the "Spring Hill," the "Cedar Run," while the owners of "Old Crow," "Old Taylor" and "Old Oscar Pepper," are manufacturers and residents of Frankfort. Nearly all the mills are in operation within and around the city, the capital invested in this business being in excess of $150,000. A twine mill is operated by water power at Lock No 4, its paid up capital $100,000. The Chair factory and the Capital Chair Manufactury are both in operation here with a capital of about $100,000. The Kentucky Buggy Company is in successful operation and has a first class buggy, carriage and harness establishment, having survived its infant stage and become noted for its workmanship. The capital invested in this business is about $30,000. The Milan reel is made here, and is known all over the globe as the superior of all reels. A large flooring mill is operated by Jno. E. Miles & Son, with extensive elevators connected therewith. Here is made the well known brand "J. E. M.," the best flour manufactured. The Frankfort Brick Company manufactures first class pressed brick near the city.

BANKS.

Four banks of excellent financial condition do business in this city. The Farmers Bank of Kentucky, whose President is Col. Thomas Hodman and the Cashier, Mr. Grant Green; has a capital of $1,000,000 and stands at the head of the financial institutions. Next comes the Branch Bank of Kentucky, with Gen. D. W. Lindsey, President, and E. L. Samuel, Cashier. The capital is $200,000, the mother bank being at Louisville. The Bank of Kentucky, whose capital is $150,000, having accumulated a large surplus, standing as one of the well managed institutions. The officers are Gen. Fayette Hewitt, President, C. E. Hoge, Cashier. Last but not least comes the Deposit Bank, with Gen. W. H. Miller, President, and H. H. Watson, Cashier. Its capital and surplus exceeds $100,000, and is one of the safest and best banks in Frankfort.

The Franklin Safety Valve

and Truck Company is another institution that is necessary to any county in settling estates, or becoming executor, trustee or assignee of any person, firm or corporation. There are about 100 buildings and an association, one of the greatest interests to pay out every five years, having already retired one class of borrowers in that period, releasing this class of mortgages. This is known as the People Building and Loan Association. The company is known as the Kentucky Investment Company, which is well managed and successfully operated, and is not restricted to the county, but does business in all parts of the State.

SCHOOLS.

The educational facilities of Frankfort are second to no other city, there are fine class public schools now, and the taxpayers bear the burden of its annual expenditure. The interest on one hundred thousand dollars in bonds is paid to this institution annually, amounting to $5,000. There is a direct tax on school property, which, with the interest from bonds and the State per capita produces nearly $20,000 annually, every dollar of which is expended in educating the white and colored children of the city. In addition the school board has a school for boys and girls, in charge of the sisters of charity, and there are other private schools in successful operation. Near the city is the State Normal School for colored persons in charge of the State.

RAILROADS.

Within the present year an electric street car line has been constructed which is about five and a half miles long. The company is the owner of three passenger cars of the latest style and finish, furnishing cheap transportation to the traveling public. It will be noted that there are no express buildings for transporting by electric power loaded freight cars from and to the manufacturing establishments in and near the city to the railroad depots centering Frankfort. It is like a bag-gage car proposed to run freight cars around sharp curves with ease and safety. The officers of the railway are Mr. Pat McDonald, President, and Mr. Jno. T. Buckley, Secretary and Treasurer. The L. & N. system enters Frankfort, as also the Kentucky Midland Railroad, the latter being a Frankfort enterprise.

WHITE SULPHUR WELL.

There is in the city one of the finest bath houses in the country. The water is white sulphur, and is supplied from a bored well on the place of Mr. James A. Murray, half a mile distant, the supply being carried to the bath house by its own power as it comes from the well.

NOTES.

The city is well supplied with hotels, the Capital being the leading in its capacity as well as its large and airy rooms and hallways, its commodious dining rooms and its extensive office. There is also in the city a large hotel, the "Green River," used exclusively for dancing purposes. The proprietor is Mr. Jerome Weitzel and the business manager Mr. Ed. Weitzel.

The Kenyon Hotel, under the management of Mr. E. Womack, is a well known establishment to the travelling public, well located, fronting on Main street, and extending back to the river. It is a delightful place for the travelers to lodge and well cared for.

The Meriwether Hotel, so named after its old owner, is managed by Capt. S. V. Pence, the well known steamboat Captain. There everything is like home, and the visitors are always well pleased with accommodations at the Meriwether.

I have two little grandchildren who are toothless this hot weather and are troubled with bowel complaint. I give them Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and it acts like a charm. I earnestly recommend it for children with colic and diarrhoea. I suffered from a severe attack of bloody flux with cramps and pains in my stomach, one third of a bottle of this remedy cured me. Within twenty-four hours I was out of bed and doing my house work. Mrs. W. L. DUNAGAN, Bon-air Hickman, Co., Tenn. For sale.

OLD MAIDS.

BY DIAMOND P. BENTLEY.
The rich maids are rocked upon roses through life.

And the poor maids go through the ebbing strife.
Old maids will not marry, to wash a plate,
Wrinkled-faced maids often meet poorness fate.

Look at the proud-lout-kissed-maid-to-day,
They let their kin people do their courting every way.

Marrying is a leap in the dark you know.
And you might not get a knotty-haded Jim crew.

The gentle river's hooling owl by moonlight
Must swim back to the old maid's heart by sun-light.

And her vanished sweetheart of love
Might stop her ebbing voice that rolls above.

Peep through thy straight, love with a sweet kiss,
My hand-hold heart with you shall never be amiss.

May the sleeping red rose in her violet bays
Find some one to love in her dreams.

The moonlight crust-silver waves have danced by.

When I stayed in the kitchen to cook the golden pie.

No snow-capped white rose can charm my sad heart.

The son of the night birds around my face must part.

Sad musical sounds make me shed tears,
To think at my wrinkled face once plumped in your years.

May whispering pines kiss the falling dew,

When death's restless rustling bids to scatter.

Where the orange blossoms fan the rose hue,
My sweet pink face and kisses are for yo.

To-night, down hangs the red rosy moon;

Is there one sweet kiss for meth's afternoon?

The flowers are sweet, to drip with diamond dew,
And love is sweet to count when nice and new.

The flower is beautiful to blush with sunlight beam;

And love is the sweetest to smile with gleams.

Beauty is the fairest when young in years,

And love is the sweetest to have no fears.

The flower is sweet to float into the wedding room,

And kisses are the sweetest to wed with a groom.

The readers of the ROUNDABOUT will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Cancer. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity, which is considered the disease requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foreign matter and consolidating the patient strength by building up the constitution and assuaging nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for list of testimonials.

On to Washington.

Three years ago, the only authentic map of the Virginia battlefields was prepared in the War Department for the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway Co. It can with safety be asserted that it is the most interesting map published; and so great was the demand for the first edition that 100,000 were soon absorbed, but it has been re-issued for the occasion of the K. of P. Encampment at Washington in August, and will be mailed free after June 1st, upon application to C. B. Ryan, Assistant General Passenger Agent, C. & O. Ry., Cincinnati, O. In connection with the map is also a description of the grand and varied scenery of the Virginias, and the delightful Mountain and Sea Shore Resorts along the C. & O., as well as sketch of the battlefields.
